

Norwich Castle Keep

KS
2

Norwich Castle Keep was built by the Normans over 900 years ago.
From the 14th to the 19th century, the Keep was used as a county gaol.
You need to visit the ground floor, upper floor and basement to find your answers.

GROUND FLOOR

Circle the correct answers

This helmet is made of iron bronze tin

It is shaped like a goblet saucer basin

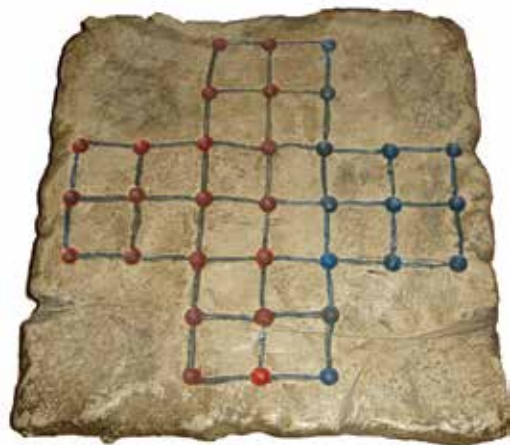

GROUND FLOOR

This 'Falchion' sword has one cutting edge
True/False

UPPER FLOOR

In what room can you find these figures?

GROUND FLOOR

What is this game called?

UPPER FLOOR

Near the chapel, look for the display about pilgrims. When they visited holy places, they bought souvenirs like this one.

What is this made of and who is the Saint?

BASEMENT

What is this person doing?

BASEMENT

Who is this man and what crime did he commit?

BASEMENT

These 2 objects were used to restrain difficult prisoners when the castle became the county gaol. What are they called?