

SUPER SPOTTERS

* Look very carefully as you walk around the museum and see if you can spot the objects on the sheet. To help you, we've kept them in the order you should see them!*

Bird Gallery

Pelican

A pelican's wing span can be as wide as 3.5m. How far can you stretch your arms?

Natural History Gallery

Lions

A lion can run at 50mph for short bursts. Do you think you could outrun a lion?

Arts of Living Gallery

Bird Bowl

This bowl is over 100 years old and may have held strawberries or nuts. What would you put in it?

Colman: British Masters

Boy at Marbles (Henry Cotman)

This boy is playing with marbles. What games do you like playing?

Boudica and the Romans

Roman Coins

Sometimes Romans would bury their money to keep it safe. What would you want to keep safe?

Teapot Gallery

Humpty Dumpty Teapot

Can you spot Humpty Dumpty sitting on the wall? Sing 'Humpty Dumpty' with your adults.

Northern Europe Gallery

The Tower of Babel

What a busy painting with all those people hard at work! Can you spot the king on his horse?

English Country House

The Paston Treasure

This oil painting shows the possessions of the Paston family. How many animals can you spot?

Victorian Gallery

Babes in the Wood

A marble sculpture of two children huddled in a wood surrounded by nature. Can you see the flowers?

East Anglian Artists

Sunny June

A gentle horse and her happy foal are being led along on a sunny day. Where might they be going?

*Subject to unforeseen gallery closure